Presents The Montreal Premiere of "Zero Hour"

Zero Hour is a one-person play written & performed by playwright & actor Jim Brochu. In a biographical reflection on Zero Mostel, Brochu portrays the Jewish actor & comedian giving a fictional interview with an unseen New York Times reporter shortly before Mostel's death in 1977.

Brochu's Mostel recounts his life & career; he describes the impact of the Hollywood blacklist on himself & his friends, including his testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee, as well as his success with A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, Fiddler on the Roof and the original movie version of The Producers.

Join us for the most honoured play of 2010.

To all residents of Hampstead

The Town of Hampstead has chosen to implement a new more inclusive rebate program designed to help residents join the library of their choosing. This new rebate program is only valid for libraries located on the island of Montreal.

Please note that you must join the library of your choice first. Once you've joined a library, you will need to present your proof of payment to the Community Service & Recreation office located in the Irving L. Adessky Community Centre, along with proof of residency in order to receive your rebate. The Town will reimburse you 50% of your paid library dues up to a maximum of $50 (one rebate per family/address).
